

I would like to voice my opinion my that national radio services such as K-Love radio is more beneficial to this community than the possible LPFM stations that could replace this station. I feel that it would be a mistake to give LPFM priority over stations using translators such as K-Love radio.